Bard Fulton

Bard Fulton will be promoted to President. Bard will be responsible for continuing to drive the growth of Fortney & Weygandt, Inc.'s general contracting service nationwide as he has done in various roles for the past 24 years. Fulton will work closely with Fortney & Weygandt's Board of Directors, Management Team and all employees to serve clients and partners on all projects.

Mitch Lapin will be promoted to CEO. Mitch has been with the company for over 30 years. He has worked his way up through project manager and operations, serving as the President most recently.

Mitch will continue to guide the new senior level employees to drive the growth of Fortney & Weygandt, Inc.'s business and internal leadership. He will focus on project development, operational efficiencies and streamlining internal business processes.

Mitch Lapin

“The management team structure that Bob Fortney put in place has allowed current staff to grow within the company,” Mitch Lapin reflected. “It allows Fortney & Weygandt to promote from within creating an ongoing succession process keeping the company strong and poised for substantial growth and an even brighter future.”
